

Houserules Boerhaarshoeve; The Outdoor Cabin Camp

Welcome to Boerhaarshoeve! We do our best to make your stay with us as pleasant as possible. This works best if everyone adheres to a number of rules. We expect you to treat our buildings, grounds and inventory as you expect others to treat your property. The tenant (or leadership) must ensure that every participant in the group is informed in advance of the rules below.

Guests are expected to bring their own:

- Bedding:
  - Fitted sheet
  - Sleeping bag or Blanket with cover
  - Pillow with pillowcase
- A linen package is optional to rent: (Duvet cover, fitted sheet and pillowcase)
- Towels and kitchen linen
- Cleaning products and rubbish bags
- Coffee filters are available in the accommodation

General

The house rules are based on normal behaviour that does not cause damage or nuisance to or for others. However, we reserve the right to deny one or more persons access to the building and grounds in the event of non-compliance or violation of the house rules.

- Please dispose of waste in the appropriate containers and bins.
See also waste collection and separation below.
- Nightly rest applies from 11pm to 7am on the grounds and in the buildings. This means that the tenants/groups should not disturb another.
- Alcohol consumption leading to public drunkenness and unaccountable behaviour, discrimination, threats and/or violence are forbidden and will be immediately reported to the police.
- Damage, loss or leaving the accommodation excessively filthy will be charged for.
- For everyone's safety, our accommodation is equipped with a fire alarm system linked to the local fire brigade. This system reacts to smoke, temperature and flammable gases such as excess use of deodorant. A reset of the installation after it has gone off without necessity costs €150.
- Employees of Boerhaarshoeve always have access to the accommodation.
- Boerhaarshoeve offers plenty of catering possibilities. External catering and meal services are therefore not permitted.
